

Architectural

Architectural signage not only directs and welcomes customers and employees, but begins to set the entire tone for the structure. Signs by Knight has experience in creating all types of architectural signage. From monument signs to back-lit channel letters on the top of buildings to custom shapes and logos, Signs by Knight can make your Architectural signage look great while staying within budget constraints

Our manufacturing section can handle anything!

Post and panel system, directory/door sign system, 3D signage, cutout letters and logos, shopping centre signs, business signage, Hospital signposting, direction signage from steel, aluminium, timber, and plastic.

We can do it!
